

Privacy Policy

LGM Analytics / Lottery Guess Master

Effective / last updated: September 8, 2026

This Privacy Policy explains how LGM Analytics handles information used to operate its website, member accounts, support, and digital services.

1. Information we collect

- Account information such as email address and account details used for registration and membership access.
- Support communications and information you choose to provide when requesting help.
- Technical and security information such as session, device, browser, login, and usage data needed to operate and protect the service.
- Payment status, transaction identifiers, plan information, and related records supplied by payment providers. LGM Analytics does not store complete payment-card numbers.

2. How information is used

- Provide and maintain member access and digital services.
- Match eligible payments to LGM accounts and administer membership status.
- Respond to support requests and resolve billing or account-access issues.
- Protect accounts, detect abuse or fraud, enforce device/access limits, and maintain website security.
- Maintain records, improve website operation, and comply with legal or payment-provider obligations.

3. Payment and service providers

Payments and related verification may be handled by third parties such as Whop, NOWPayments, banks, card networks, or other payment providers. Hosting, email delivery, analytics, security, and infrastructure providers may process limited information as necessary to provide their services. Their own privacy terms may apply to information they receive directly.

4. Cookies, local storage, and sessions

The website may use cookies, browser local storage, session storage, or similar technologies for login continuity, preferences, member-dashboard display, security, and site functionality. Disabling these technologies may affect website features or login behavior.

5. Sharing and sale of personal data

LGM Analytics does not sell personal data. Information may be shared with service providers when reasonably necessary to operate the website, process payments, provide support, protect the service, or comply with lawful requests.

6. Retention

Information is retained only as reasonably necessary for account administration, service delivery, security, payment and support records, dispute handling, legal obligations, and legitimate business purposes. Retention periods may vary by record type and provider requirements.

7. Security

Reasonable technical and administrative measures are used to protect account and service information. No internet service can guarantee absolute security. Users should use a unique password and protect access to their email and devices.

8. Your choices and requests

You may contact support@lotteryguessmaster.com with questions about your LGM account or personal information. Available privacy rights depend on your location and applicable law. Requests may require identity verification before account-related information is changed or disclosed.

9. Children

The service is intended for adults age 18 and older and is not directed to children.

10. Policy updates

This Privacy Policy may be updated as the service, providers, or legal requirements change. The current effective date appears at the top of this document.
